By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Christians observed their 19th Christmas since World War II with prayers and rejoicing despite fresh signs that universal peace remains an elusive goal. Communist border guards shot and killed an East German youth trying to escape over the speakers played Christmas music for more than 65,000 West Berliners pouring through the barrier into East Berlin. Less than 200 miles from the land of Christ's birth, Greeks and Turks threatened to renew their civil war on the Mediterranean island of Cyprus. Two Turkish jet fighters buzzed the island providing additional fuel for what appeared to be an international crisis in the making. In Cairo, the Egyptian press and radio reported the Arab world had warmly received

Accidents in Arkansas Claim Four

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four persons died in Christmas holiday accidents in Arkansas. Two of the deaths were directly attributed to icy roads.

Harlan Patrick, 35, of Combs, was killed Wednesday when the pickup truck he was riding in went out of control two miles west of Combs on Highway 16. State Trooper James Cottrell said Ernest Gulridge, 53, of Delaney, lost control of the truck on a patch of ice and it overturned in a ditch. Gulridge was not listed as injured.

O. B. Phillips, 78, of Denning, was killed when his truck hit an embankment Tuesday as he turned around on an icy road near Ozark.

Also on Tuesday, Mrs. Jewell Gray, 51, of Caraway, was killed in a head-on collision on Highway 1 near Paragould, and Frank Brust, 42, of Vilonia, died when a car he was working on near Beebe fell from a jack and crushed him.

Enterprise Covered by Red Fallout

By FRED HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Radioactive fallout from Russia's 1961 nuclear tests in the atmosphere contaminated the giant U.S. aircraft carrier Enterprise, it was disclosed today.

The radiation persisted for about a month but did not endanger the health of those on the 86,000-ton nuclear-powered carrier.

The disclosure was made in a current publication of the Navy's Bureau of Medicine and Surgery.

Written by Lt. Cmdr. Lewis H. Seaton, the article deals with radiation control aboard the Enterprise.

Seaton, a medical officer formerly stationed on the Enterprise, did not say just where or when the contamination occurred.

The Navy did not say immediately whether other ships were affected similarly.

As Seaton told it, rainstorms washed fallout from the sky to contaminate the carrier's outside areas "on the order of 10 to 20 times that allowable for the nuclear plant area."

This, he said, set in motion concerted efforts to prevent the fallout from entering the ship through the ventilation system or on the feet of the men. He added:

"There was no real danger to health, as levels of contamination were still within tolerable levels, averaged over a period of time."

Camden's Doctor Byrd Dies at 88

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Edward Jones Byrd, 88, a former state senator, died Wednesday at a Camden hospital.

He was a widely-known physician and a native of Hampton. Byrd had been in ill health for several months.

Byrd served as a state senator from the 12th District from 1953 through 1959.

By LAWRENCE MALKIN

LONDON (AP) — England bundled up against a cold snap as the 20,314-ton Greek liner Lakonia slipped out of Southampton, headed for Madeira, the Canary Islands—and sunshine—on a Christmas cruise.

An atmosphere of calm gentility and folksy cheer pervaded the ship as the 658 passengers—most of them British—and 369 crew, set out Dec. 18. Half the passengers had signed for the full 5-week voyage, paying up to $1,055. The rest were going to the islands.

It was to be a lazy, sunny Christmas. Breakfast in bed, tea in a tapestry-hung lounge. In the evening, they dressed for dinner.

On Friday, Dec. 20, the first day out, there was a boat drill. No one seems to remember exactly how it was conducted. The crew had been through a boat drill before sailing. Capt. Daniel Jones of the British Sea Transport Department was told by his inspectors that it was "very satisfactory." They did not conduct a formal inspection of the ship. It carried a Greek certificate of seaworthiness.

Sunday, in one lounge the ship's social director had organized a party for young people—they came dressed as hobos. There was carol singing in another lounge, a movie in the third. Most older passengers had retired; Monday was to be a big day of sightseeing in Madeira.

Just before 11 p.m. a steward spotted smoke seeping under the doors of the ship's barber shop. He flung open the doors and fell back before flames.

The fire raced through passageways toward the state-rooms.

Capt. Mathios Zarbis, a veteran of 15 years with the Greek Line, was sitting in the main saloon. He raced toward the door.

Ivor S. Buchanan, an American, and his wife Dorothy had retired early. He pulled a suit over his pajamas. She put his coat over her slip. "What a hell of a time to have a fire drill," he thought.

In the radio room, operator Alexis Kalogridis switched to the automatic emergency transmitter and began tapping out: "Fire spreading up. Prepare evacuation on ship." It was 11:30 p.m.

At 22 minutes after midnight Kalogridis sent out the final, anguished call: "SOS from Lakonia last time. I cannot stay any more in the wireless station. We are leaving the ship. Please immediate assistance. Please help."

Then he dashed to the lifeboat deck, already crowded with passengers and crew milling about in pajamas and anything they had thrown on. Some women still wore their jewelry and evening gowns.

Whether the confusion merited the name of panic—as some passengers claimed—was a matter of dispute. There were contrasting reports of heroism and hectic scrambling.

Clear Skies Help Shed Heavy Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clear skies and warmer weather helped Arkansas shed its Christmas snow today and the warming trend was expected to continue through this weekend.

Highways were clear today. Some city streets still had ice and slush on them from the storm that left up to 15 inches of snow on Arkansas last weekend.

"We're not looking for a repeat performance," said a spokesman at the U. S. Weather Bureau in Little Rock. He said there should be little or no precipitation through this weekend.

Low temperatures tonight were expected to be between 30 and 40 and highs Friday were expected to be in the mid 50s to high 60s.

Minimum temperatures in most sections of the state were considerably higher this morning. Texarkana and Fayetteville each had a 44. Harrison 45, and Memphis 37.

The central section was colder—Little Rock had a minimum of 22, El Dorado 29 and Pine Bluff 32.

Maximums Wednesday were mostly in the 50s, but Texarkana had 63 and Harrison 66.

DREAM COMES TRUE — Julie Gill's dream came true. The 11 year old crippled girl from Wichita, Kansas, wrote President Johnson that she wanted to see him. ## 43 Railway Cars Derail at Blackwell

BLACKWELL, Ark. (AP) — Forty-three cars of a southbound Missouri-Pacific railroad freight derailed in this north central Arkansas community today.

There were no reported injuries. Cause of the accident was not immediately determined.

A Missouri-Pacific spokesman at division headquarters in Osawatomie, Kan., said the cars carried lumber, flour, wheat and oil.

About 600 feet of track was torn out. The MoPac spokesman said a spur track would be in operation by 4 p.m. with no rerouting of traffic on the freight line from Little Rock to Kansas City.

Blackwell is about 60 miles northwest of Little Rock.

BLACKWELL, Ark. (AP) — A Missouri Pacific freight train derailed near Blackwell today, spilling 40 cars along tracks paralleling U.S. Highway 64 from Morrilton to Russellville.

No injuries were reported. H. R. Purdue, division roadmaster at Russellville, was at the scene and could not be reached.

A Missouri Pacific spokesman at Little Rock said the derailment knocked telephone lines down in the area. The track at the spot ran along level ground. Cause of the derailment was not learned.

Fair Weather Prevails in Most Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cold air nipped areas in the Southeast today but generally seasonal temperatures and mostly fair weather prevailed in the major part of the nation.

Freezing weather was reported in sections of Florida, southern Georgia and southeast Alabama. In Florida, the mercury dropped to 25 above in Cross City, with a reading of 28 in Tallahassee, 30 in Gainesville and 36 in Daytona Beach. Miami's low was 46.

But Weather Bureau officials forecast warmer weather in the Southeast and a little cooler in the North-Central region. Little change was indicated in other areas.

Temperatures dropped to near zero in parts of Maine and Idaho but no severe cold or heavy snow was reported across the country. Light snow or flurries fell across the Northern tier of states while light rain damped areas in Oregon and western Washington.

A warming trend in the Central and Southern Plains far above normal in many areas. The 63 mark in Norfolk, Neb., was a record high for Dec. 25.

Fire Proves Deadly on Christmas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fire killed 12 children in the Walter Johnson family in Charleston, S.C.—the worst of the nation's Christmas fires.

A family of six died in a house fire in Spring Lake, Mich. A Christmas tree caught fire in a Muncie, Ind., home, killing two sisters, Michelle Johnson, 5, and Joretta, 3.

An exploding oil heater was blamed for the deaths of the 12 in Charleston, eight boys and four girls, aged 8 months to 20 years and all Negroes.

The victims were all in one bedroom at the top of the stairs. Johnson, 51, was critically burned trying to save them. Mrs. Johnson, 47, and a son, Nathaniel, 16, escaped.

Nine of the victims were her children, three her grandchildren.

Authorities said Johnson and a friend were brightening the frame house for the holiday with a new linoleum floor and apparently spilled oil from the heater by accidentally tipping it. The explosion followed.

Johnson Up on College Fashions

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson proved he's well up on college fashions. He bought his daughter, Lynda Bird, 19, University of Texas sophomore, a red Marimekko dress from Finland for Christmas. The style is popular on American campuses.

A casual dress, it is like a loose shift type with a high yoke.

The President told reporters he had been foresighted enough to buy it while on his recent visit to the Scandinavian countries.

The Youth Center Holiday Dance will be held at 8:30 p.m. Friday with music being furnished by the "Yellowjackets."

Two fires were reported in this area during Christmas. Spt. 5 Delmer Weliver, Ft. Myer, Va., arrived home to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Weliver and the Dick Hoggard family.

The home on the Palmos road was destroyed by fire of unknown origin. Nobody was home at the time and nothing was saved.

Christmas eve at 7:45 p.m. a Negro residence at 700 North Walnut was destroyed by fire.

Firemen listed the home as belonging to Collina Webb who wasn't at home at the time of the blaze. The frame building was destroyed but several trunks of clothing were saved, firemen said.

Army PFC Frederick L. Carver, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Carver, Hope, participated in the funeral for the late President John F. Kennedy.

President Is Keeping Tab on Problems

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is keeping tab on national and international problems while vacationing at his ranch here.

The President's guest today was former Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee. Johnson said he wanted to "get his counsel on a number of national problems." These were not specified, and there was speculation that the Democratic politician may be in line for a federal post.

Johnson also was keeping in touch with the explosive situation in Cyprus, where fighting has erupted between Turks and Greeks. Developments on the island prompted two or three telephone conferences Wednesday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The pressure of official business during the holiday stay at the LBJ ranch was evidenced, too, by a new directive in which Johnson ordered a cutback in federal jobs within the next 18 months.

In discussing Cyprus with newsmen, Johnson said: "We have a situation developing there and we are watching it very carefully."

Aides reported that Johnson strongly supported efforts by the British, Greek and Turkish governments to stabilize the situation.

In ordering a cut in the federal pay roll, Johnson told agency heads:

"Even though nothing like this has happened in the last decade, I am still unconvinced that we are getting the maximum possible output per employee. I believe we can do better."

He said every department and agency would get personnel ceilings which "are not to be exceeded without my explicit approval."

Pay rolls are to be cut, if only slightly, in two stages—by next June 30 and by June 30, 1965.

When a reporter asked how big a job cut to expect, Johnson retorted:

"Isn't cutting it enough? You don't know how hard that was."

He noted that the number of federal employees had grown by 133,000 since 1961.

British Sending More Troops to Troubled Cyprus

By ALEX EFTY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Britain ordered more troops to Cyprus today as a conflict between the Greek Cypriot and Turkish minority threatened to embroil NATO allies Greece and Turkey in open conflict.

Greece asked for an extraordinary session in Paris of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's permanent council to discuss the crisis. Informal sources in Paris said the council met secretly Wednesday.

The Cyprus government, already has sent a complaint to the United Nations.

The Turkish government ordered two jet fighters to make warning flights over Cyprus Christmas Day after accusing Greek Cypriots of massacring Turkish Cypriots in communal fighting that has been raging since last Saturday.

Then as the fighting died down to sporadic firing, the office of President Makarios, leader of the Greek Cypriot community, asserted six Turkish navy vessels had taken up positions off Cyprus.

President Cemal Gursel of Turkey also expressed grave concern, accused the Greek Cypriots of a massacre, and appealed to President Johnson and other world leaders to intervene.

The situation was being watched closely in both London and Washington. Greece and Turkey, long at odds over Cyprus, guard the Far Eastern flank of the Atlantic Alliance.

Johnson was watching developments from his Texas ranch. Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home of Britain interrupted a Christmas vacation to return to London.

What prompted Makarios to send a complaint to the U. N. Security Council was the flight of the Turkish jets and the movement of some of Turkey's 650-man garrison on Cyprus into the Turkish Cypriot quarter of this capital.

The Greeks promptly moved part of their 850 soldiers stationed on Cyprus into the Greek Cypriot section, thus setting the stage for a possible confrontation.

In an attempt to head off trouble, the diplomats of Britain, Greece and Turkey met with Makarios and decided to put British, Greek and Turkish forces in Cyprus under a unified command headed by a Briton, a communique announced.

There are about 10,000 British servicemen on Cyprus, stationed here as in the case of the Greek and Turkish garrisons under the treaty of 1960 making Cyprus an independent member of the British Commonwealth.

Johnson told newsmen at his Texas ranch he had conferred by telephone with Secretary of State Dean Rusk two or three times on the situation.

"We have a situation developing there and we are watching it very carefully," Johnson said. "We have 1,700 citizens on that island."

State Department sources said in Washington no evacuation orders have been issued to U.S. citizens, but Americans in outlying areas have been advised to move to more centrally located points in case evacuation is deemed advisable.

The fighting arose from Turkish opposition to Makarios' proposals to amend the Cyprus constitution. The Turks claim the amendments would weaken their rights.

Christmas Day Death Toll Is 301 in Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's heavy Christmas holiday traffic killed more than 300 persons.

The toll was 301 for the 48-hour period from midnight Monday to midnight Christmas Day (local time).

Fatalities wereaviest during the actual holiday, Wednesday. Tuesday's toll at midnight, EST, had reached 83, and by midnight on the West Coast it was 100. More than two-thirds of the deaths were counted on Christmas Day.

Adverse driving conditions in many localities apparently contributed to the high number of deaths.

The number of fatalities Christmas Day was far above the average of traffic deaths during the first 10 months this year and during last year's record toll of 40,000. The 10-month total was 35,170, an average of about 115 deaths daily compared to last year's daily average of 112.

The holiday deaths compared with a total of 170 highway fatalities counted by The Associated Press during a 48-hour non-holiday period from 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10, to 12:01 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12.

The last time Christmas occurred on a Wednesday, in 1957, there were 225 traffic deaths in a 30-hour period, from 6 p.m. Christmas Eve to midnight Christmas.

Surviving Children Have Christmas

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP) — Little Mary Dever, 6, named two of the dolls she got for Christmas for sisters of hers who died in a fire at her family's home last Friday.

She and a brother, Ronald, 9, were the only survivors of the tragedy which took the lives of their parents, Leonard Dever, 42, and Martha Dever, 40, and four sisters—Nelle, 6; Joann, 5; Sharon, 4, and Janet, 1.

Frank Harris, 57, of Jonesboro, was charged with first degree murder after the surviving children told police a man had shot their parents, then set fire to the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grimes of Trumann, nurses at a Trumann clinic, are caring for the surviving Dever children until it is determined what should be done with them.

Grimes, who has no children of his own, said Trumann residents supplied money and gifts that fulfilled every wish expressed by Ronald and Mary in a letter to Santa Claus.

The six victims of the fire were buried Christmas Eve. Grimes said the children were excited the night before Christmas at the prospect of a visit by Santa, were "tickled to death" at their presents and were amazed later Christmas Day by all the food at a Christmas family reunion of the Grimes family at Hoxie.

Whittington Case Set for February

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs said today David Whittington Jr., 19, son of Prosecuting Attorney David Whittington, may be tried for the murder of a Hot Springs woman early in February.

Dobbs set a two-week period to hear criminal cases. Whittington is charged with the slaying of Mrs. Carolyn Brazil, 23.

Lennis Hudson, 31, a Negro charged with slaying a Negro tailor, will be tried the week of Jan. 30, Dobbs said.

Fred Bartlett, 54, of Hot Springs, charged in the deaths of two Hot Springs women, also may be tried in early February, Dobbs said.

Yet Christians still dreamed of peace as they marked the birth of the Prince of Peace.

In an act symbolic of Christ's concern for the humble, Pope Paul VI of the Roman Catholic Church celebrated Mass in a poor workers' section of Rome, heavily populated by Communists, and prayed at the bedside of a paralyzed woman. Thousands cheered when he accepted the gift of a lamb, itself an offering of peace.

More than 10,000 pilgrims flocked to Bethlehem to worship in the Judean hillside town where Christ was born.

Along the icy truce line dividing North and South Korea, U.S. soldiers hoisted a huge electric sign toward the Communists saying "Merry Christmas." The Reds replied with Christmas carols and propaganda over their loudspeakers.

With much of the United States covered with snow, Americans at home enjoyed a white Christmas. But near Johnson City, Tex., where President Johnson spent Christmas with his family at the LBJ Ranch, the temperatures was in the 70s.

The President inspected his cattle, took flowers to neighbors, entertained relatives, led 50 newsmen and photographers on a tour of his 12-room house, rode in a speedboat and ate a big turkey dinner.

In another Texas city, thousands of spectators passed in silence at the Dallas intersection where an assassin's bullets struck President Kennedy, hardly more than a month ago. Some 15,000 persons filed past the President's grave in Washington's Arlington National Cemetery.

In Palm Beach, Fla., Mrs. Kennedy attended a private Mass at the home of her father-in-law, Joseph P. Kennedy. Her children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3, remained at home, but later exchanged gifts at their grandfather's home.

Theatrical Producer Dies at 83

NEW YORK (AP) — Jacob J. Shubert, 83, theatrical entrepreneur known as the man who produced a thousand shows, died in his Manhattan apartment today of a cerebral hemorrhage.

He was a brother and business partner of Lee Shubert, also a theatrical business figure, who died on Christmas Day, 1953.

The federal government only two days ago had brought suit for $15,705,387 in estate taxes against the estate of Lee Shubert. The government placed the value of the state at $25 million, the bulk of it a half interest in the partnership.

Jacob Shubert was the sole surviving partner of the theatrical dynasty founded by Lee Shubert, himself and another brother, Sam. They owned 16 theaters in New York and others in other cities.

He died in his luxurious apartment, in the 10-story Sardi Building, across the street from the Shubert Theater and the world-famous Shubert Alley in the heart of the Broadway theater district.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Eighteen state Senate jobs will be on the ballot in next summer's primary elections.

Secretary of State Kelly Bryant completed his filing material today in preparation for the opening of the tickets Jan. 1.

None of the U.S. Senate spots are open.

The only state Supreme Court justice who must run is Frank Holt who is finishing an unexpired two-year term.

All prosecuting attorney jobs are open. Three chancery judges must run or their jobs will be open. They are Murray Reed of Pulaski County, Sam Garrett of Garland County and Wesley Howard of Nashville.

BREATHING SPELL

Local agencies receiving state turnback can breathe easier now, there will be no withholding of funds because of below par assessments.

The word from state to Assessor Smithson was that Howard county has boosted its ratio (assessments to actual value) to the minimum of 18 percent. Actually, property, both real and personal, is supposed to be valued for tax purposes at 20 percent of market value, but the county is given a 2-percent leeway.

Apparently the effort of the equalization board to follow up a listing of some 200 pieces of unlisted property had the desired effect on the ratio. A state team turned up over 200 pieces of property not even on the tax books.

This is a situation which will continue to exist until the county gives some thought to a constant effort to add new and improved property to the tax books. Howard County did not hire professional appraisers when it was custom with most counties in recent years, nor has a complete set of cards been established for the assessor. The tax fell to the equalization board, although it was not exactly the duty of that group, to help boost the assessments to the required level.

Although we have been given a reprieve, we have not resolved the basic problem. In fairness to taxpayers bearing their just share of the burden, some method of constantly reviewing and adding to assessments is now in order. — Nashville (Ark.) News

Truman Refuses Demonstration

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman refused Monday night to repeat for news photographers his impromptu handshake with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. "The hell with it," Truman said as he walked away.

An Associated Press photographer had recorded the handshake.

The apparently accidental meeting between the two men occurred backstage at the Shipbert Theater after the curtain closed on the musical comedy "Here's Love."

Fearful of Returning to Moscow

By ADRIENNE BOSWORTH

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Nina Pozdnev is spending her last full day in the United States today, a little fearful of Friday's trip that will take her home to Moscow.

But her fears have nothing to do with politics or economics or any of the "ics" or "isms" that separate two nations.

Mrs. Pozdnev gets airsick, and, as she says, Moscow is a long way from Portsmouth.

Mrs. Pozdnev, a shy pleasant teacher, her husband, Victor, and their two children have been spending the Christmas holidays as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McKenzie and the city of Portsmouth. Their trip was sponsored by the Portsmouth Junior Chamber of Commerce as a project they call "Operation Peace on Earth."

Awaiting the Pozdnevs at their return home are days of wrapping packages, setting up and decorating a fir tree, visiting friends and celebrating a time of good cheer.

It will be the celebration of the new year, much in the same way Americans carry out the nonreligious aspects of Christmas.

But this year, the Pozdnev children, especially Olga, 6, also were paid a visit from Santa Claus. Beneath the large Christmas tree in the McKenzie's living room Christmas morning, Olga found three dolls, doll clothes and two pairs of shoes.

For Anatoly, 16, there was an American football and a miniature auto racing set. Pozdnev, an automotive engineer in Moscow, received shirts and ties. Presents for Mrs. Pozdnev included shoes, a coat and sweater.

For the McKenzie family there were records, caviar, books and toys.

Expressing her joy for the trip and how grateful she was for the friendliness of the people of Portsmouth, Mrs. Pozdnev also indicated a bit of homesickness.

"We Russians have a saying," she said. "To be guests, good; to go home, better."

Some 50,000 Cross Wall in Berlin

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP) — About 50,000 West Berliners crossed into East Berlin by noon today despite the Christmas Day killing of a young East German who tried to escape over the Berlin wall.

"The Christmas murder on the Berlin wall overshadows our joy at the Christmas meeting in the city," said West Germany's minister for all-German affairs, Erich Mende.

But with the day after Christmas also a holiday, the flow of visitors to relatives in the Communist sector continued at flood tide. When the gates opened at 6 a.m., the line was two blocks long at one crossing point.

There was no change in the friendly attitude of East German guards, reported under orders to "keep smiling" when the 16-day visiting period began last week by agreement between the West Berlin city government and East Germany's Red regime.

"But now you see their real face," a young Red Cross worker on duty at a crossing point said. "Here they smile and there they shoot."

Less than a mile from the Oberbaum Bridge control point an East German guard shot Paul Schulz, 18, in the back Wednesday as he sat entangled in barbed wire atop the concrete wall.

As loudspeakers blared Christmas music from the East German radio, the wounded youth toppled from the 9-foot wall into the arms of a West Berlin policeman. A companion, also 18, made it safely to the West, but Schulz died six hours later in a West Berlin hospital.

In allowing visits by West Berliners to their relatives in the East, the Communists made no relaxation in their ban on East Berliners going the other way.

White Collie Now in White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A white collie named Blanco has moved into the White House.

He's a Christmas gift to the First Family from Lois Nelson, 9, of Woodstock, Ill. In a letter to President Johnson, she wrote that the 6-month-old puppy "will bark if a burglar comes near... I think this dog will cheer your lonely job up."

Johnson accepted the gift in recognition of the kind gestures of children everywhere who love animals. But he requested that any others who may want to send animal gifts find children or institutions in their own communities where the pets would be welcomed.

The Johnsons have two Beagles.

Rockefeller Quits Attacks on Goldwater

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is abandoning attacks on Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., in his GOP presidential nomination drive.

The New York governor, only announced candidate for the nomination, resumes campaigning with a Jan. 3 Portsmouth, N.H., speech after a month's political moratorium following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The sweeping political changes brought about by the probability that President Johnson will head the 1964 Democratic ticket are expected to be reflected in altered campaign tactics by Rockefeller.

In the period preceding Kennedy's death, Rockefeller gave about equal time to attacking Goldwater for his conservative views and to lambasting Kennedy for what the governor said was the President's failure to live up to his 1960 promises on civil rights, action to end unemployment and to get the country moving faster economically.

Rockefeller was said by associates to be planning in the Portsmouth speech to lay down in broad terms the reasons he is running for the nomination and what he would hope to do if he were elected president.

The decision to abandon attacks on Goldwater apparently stems from the belief in the Rockefeller camp that the Arizona senator has become a less attractive candidate against Johnson than he would have been against Kennedy.

The Rockefeller people are making no claims that the governor has passed Goldwater in popular support among Republicans. But they think the field is now wide open and there would not be much profit in continuing to single out one man as a target among many who may be contenders for the nomination.

This could change, of course, if the March 10 New Hampshire primary narrows to a

Christmas Tree Is Stolen

DENVER (AP) — While Mr. and Mrs. John Albi were out Wednesday a man walked into their first-floor apartment carrying a suitcase. A few minutes later, a neighbor saw him leave.

Gone, apparently in his satchel, were the folded-up limbs and main stem of the Albis' two-foot metal Christmas tree.

The visitor also took 35 Christmas tree ornaments and $185 in cash.

Rockefeller-Goldwater contest.

Rockefeller's associates don't believe there is much political mileage in attacking Johnson at this point. That can come later, after the new President has begun to make his own record. But there would be little to peg such attacks on in the New Hampshire campaigning.

WARRIOR: Dr. Shapiro scrutinizes the figure of a warrior which will take its place in the World's Fair exhibit.

TWIG WAS BENT — New York City probation officer John Carros tells reporters that Lee H. Oswald, slain accused assassin of President Kennedy, was diagnosed as potentially dangerous at the age of 13 when he was a student in the city's schools and was recommended for psychiatric care. For various reasons, the care was never given.

Baboon Kidney Working Well

DENVER (AP) — One week after he received the kidneys of a baboon in a transplant operation, a 40-year-old man was listed in satisfactory condition today.

The man, whom hospital officials declined to identify, underwent the first such operation in medical history.

A team of surgeons from the U.S. Veterans Hospital here and Colorado Medical Center performed the transplant.

DENVER (AP) — Al Bobbitt, who rode horses until he was 98, died with his boots on Christmas Day as he sat rocking on a porch. He was 101.

Bobbitt served as a deputy U.S. marshal in the Cherokee Strip of Oklahoma before the land rush. He later was a rodeo performer.

DOROTHY DIX

A GOOD NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION FOR ALL HUSBANDS

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I was born and raised in the country. My grand-parents brought me and my two sisters up because my father and mother were divorced. I left home at 16 and came to the city to find work.

My sisters and I had no life at home. Our grandfather and grandmother wouldn't allow us to date and the word sex was taboo. We grew up dumb to the facts of life.

I never felt wanted or loved. Was it any wonder that I fell for the first boy who showed some interest in me? That he also happened to be good-looking and wore a uniform didn't make it any easier.

There were two others after him then I met the boy I really loved. Today he is my husband and, though caring for one another deeply (maybe that's why) we are both miserable. It still burns him up about those other boys—though all that happened long ago. He had his share of girls before we married but I never drag them in, even though I know who they were.

This woman he's been dating is married, has grown children, is 10 years older than he and teaches Sunday School! Last week her husband learned the truth. Now mine virtuously announces that he's through with her and will live with me for the sake of our children. This kills me.

The first seven years of our married life were heaven until he started brooding about the past and it's been hell ever since. Occasionally that old love - light burns in his eyes then hatred replaces it. Why? How could he have lived with me all these 14 years and fathered our five children if he hadn't cared? Could I be wrong? Somehow we'll have to make a go of it for the sake of those children. Help me. — Miserable Wife

Dear Miserable: You are correct in believing your husband still cares, else he wouldn't lash out or be seized by spasmodic periods of hatred for you. Unfortunately, his is the possessive type of love peculiar to the immature and insecure. Were he more adult, he would be broad-minded enough to consign your past to the limbo where it belongs, and love you for what you are, not what you were.

Men capable of this bigness of nature are what those who believe in reincarnation would call "old souls," far advanced in their thinking. I've met but one or two out of the thousands seen in the course of a long and busy reportorial life. Gertrude Stein's brother, Leo, the Paris art dealer, was such a man. It mattered not to him how many lovers his wife had, or had not charmed. It was enough that she loved him.

Show your husband this letter and tell him that if he is returning to you "for the sake of the children," he'll do them more harm than good unless he goes all out to make you happy. Let that be his New Year's resolution. If the parents are happy the children will be happy and vice versa. You might also show him my leaflet, "A Happy Marriage." A stamped, self-addressed envelope will bring it to you.

Dear Helen: S. W. is completely wrong about girls of 16 being too young to marry. I married at 16, have four children and, after seven years of wedded life am still very happy. Please give teenage marriages like ours a break. We're proof that not all turn out bad. — Happily Married, Warren, Ohio

Dear Happily: Cheers! You're the exception to the rule but I still maintain that the odds are long.

Dear Helen: I proposed last night to my girl. She accepted but asked that we wait two

Education Cost More Than Ever

By G. K. HODENFIELD
A.P. Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The average cost of educating a child in the public schools this school year is $352, an increase of $17 or 5 per cent over last year, the magazine School Management reported today.

The magazine said only $7 of the increase will be spent for better education, with the other $10 being used simply to offset the effects of inflation.

The magazine's annual survey is directed by Dr. Orlando F. Furno, director of research for Baltimore city schools.

Furno estimates that public schools across the country will spend $20.3 billion this school year, including the costs of school transportation, building and equipping new schools, and paying off old school debts.

The average cost per student for bus transportation is $16, and Furno said the school districts will spend $47 per student for new school construction this school year. These costs are in addition to the $352 per-pupil expenditure.

School debts, mostly long-term bonds for school construction, totaled $388 per student in the average school district as of last Sept. 1. Almost 10 per cent of the country's school districts were in debt $1,000 for each pupil enrolled.

The magazine said New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania are spending the top per-pupil figure, $482. This is about 42 per cent above the national average.

The magazine said only 10 per cent of the nation's school districts have salary scales which make it possible for classroom teachers to earn more than $9,500 a year.

The average teacher will earn $5,837 this school year, school management said. The average starting salary was listed as $4,600 and the average maximum salary, $7,307.

Admiration For Starlings

ATLANTA (AP) — Georgia's Secretary of State Ben W. Fortson, who has been conducting an all-out war on thousands of starlings which infest the State Capitol grounds, admits to a reluctant admiration for the pesky creatures.

In fact he said the birds imported from England during the last century to chase the sparrows from Central Park in New York City, remind him of Britain's dauntless spirit.

Fortson has been trying all kinds of weapons but the birds still hold the fort.

Sees General Firming of Interest

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Interest rate juggling between sections of the nations and between competing savings institutions is bolstering the belief of those who look for general firming of interest after the traditional January lull.

Yields on savings are being raised now to 4.25 per cent or higher by some New York savings banks and some savings and loan associations in Florida. But in California, where the rates are still highest, some savings and loan groups say they'll cut back Jan. 1 from 5 per cent to 4.85 per cent. Most commercial banks are held by federal regulations to 4 per cent.

In New York much of the competition for savings is between different types of institutions. In Florida, and to some extent in New York, the competition is with California where the higher yields have been attracting funds from across the nation — funds which Florida would like to use in its own building program.

Predictions of generally rising interest rates when the new year is well under way are coming from at least two sources. Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board has told Congress that if the federal tax cut is passed and stimulates the economy as hoped for, increased business borrowing will push interest rates up.

The U. S. Savings & Loan League sees a tightening next year in the supply of funds available for mortgage loans. Since it also predicts continued demand for mortgage money, the league looks for the trend toward higher mortgage rates in some parts of the nation, which started late this year, to continue for several more months.

January could see a lull in any movement toward tighter money and higher costs. Business borrows in November and December to finance increased production and to carry larger inventories. In January these loans are normally repaid. The return flow of money into the market makes credit easier and reduces pressure on interest rates.

But if business activity, and construction demand, continues high in coming months, the demand for more funds could tighten the market.

By the same token, if the economy turns down unexpectedly, the Federal Reserve's job would be to ease credit as a possible stimulant, rather than to keep it moderately tight to fend off a runaway boom.

The board is also interested in keeping short-term rates fairly high to discourage an outflow to foreign money markets that would increase any threat to U. S. gold reserves.

Region against region, institution against institution — it could be an interesting year.

Finest Yule Present for America

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON — One of the finest Christmas presents America ever received was the gift of a ragged and cold little band of fighting men.

The gift is immortalized in a famous painting in the Capitol. It was George Washington's crossing of the Delaware River on Christmas night of 1776. The surprise maneuver, winning over frightful handicaps, led to the rout of Hessian troops at the Battle of Trenton and was a major turning point in the War for Independence.

So it might be appropriate now, as the nation peacefully celebrates another Christmas, to recall once again how those early patriots fought to secure for all Americans the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

A few days before the crossing, Washington had written that "I fear the cause is nearly up." Many of his men had gone home discouraged. Those who remained, about 2,500 were poorly clothed. Some had no shoes.

The passage of the river was a bitter, tough job through the floating ice, on ore barges and small boats. Ashore, the Americans had to march through snow and sleet but all that, Washington wrote later, "did not in the least abate their ardor."

"When they came to the charge each seemed to vie with the other in pressing forward."

The charge was along roads. It scattered Hessian outposts and burst upon the main enemy body before it could form effectively.

The Hessian general was mortally wounded. His men had no way open to retreat and they quickly surrendered.

New Way to Lose a Basketball

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—McAuley High School of Joplin found a new way to lose a basketball game Monday night.

Trying for its second victory in 19 games, McAuley had a 71-69 lead over St. Agnes of Springfield and possession of the ball out of bounds with only one second left.

Instead of passing it directly to a teammate, the McAuley player flung the ball high in the air in elation over the certain triumph. The buzzer sounded before the ball hit the floor.

Officials said the ball hit a rafter.

The clock was re-set at one second. The ball was given to St. Agnes out of bounds. The throw-in to 6-foot-4 Larry Mueller was batted into the basket and the score was tied 71-all as the buzzer sounded.

In the overtime, fouls reduced McAuley to four players and St. Agnes won 78-76.

here involved, the fight was hardly more than a skirmish. Washington's little force captured about 950 prisoners. The Hessian dead were estimated at between 20 and 30. American casualties were four wounded.

But the results were magnificent, out of all proportion to size. A bright hope and a new determination for independence were born in that Christmas victory.

"The Hessians probably didn't know their heart in the battle. They were only payroll soldiers, hired by the English king, not free men fighting for a cause."

And here's a footnote to history —

When the Hessians came to America, these custom-loving

All-African Force for UN Sought

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—President Kwame Nkrumah is advocating that an "all-African force" replace U.N. military forces in the Congo when U.N. troops are withdrawn.

Lettner said Plasket was arrested in the lobby of the Little Rock Post Office as he picked up a package containing $5,000 worth of counterfeit bills.

Plasket was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner John E. Coates and held in Pulaski County Jail under $20,000 bond.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The foreign ministers of Cambodia and South Viet Nam have opened talks in Saigon aimed at restoring diplomatic relations between the neighboring countries.

Neutralist Cambodia broke relations with South Viet Nam last August after President Ngo Dinh Diem's government raided Buddhist pagodas throughout Viet Nam. Cambodia's ruler, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, is a Buddhist.

Cambodian Foreign Minister Huot Sambath arrived Tuesday heading a diplomatic team. The Vietnamese foreign minister, Pham Dang Lam, is expected to go to Cambodia later.

CAIRO (AP) — An Arab League spokesman says nine of the league's 13 members have accepted President Gamal Abdel Nasser's call for an anti-Israeli summit meeting in Cairo.

Nasser called for the meeting to consider the possibility of military action if Israel carries out its long-pending plan to divert waters of the Jordan River to irrigate the Negev Desert.

Nasser suggested the meeting he held Jan. 6, but a spokesman said the date had not been decided.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Premier Ismet Inonu is back in power in Turkey, heading a minority Cabinet composed of 19 members of his Republican People's party and four independents.

Inonu's announcement Wednesday night that he had succeeded in forming a minority government ended a 23-day political crisis during which the opposition Justice party failed in an attempt to come up with a Cabinet.

Inonu resigned earlier this month.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet news agency Tass reported today that Somali students in Moscow had met to protest a demonstration last week by Ghanaian students and Western news reports of the demonstration.

Tass said the Somalis, at a meeting Wednesday, said the Ghanaian demonstration was carried out by "a small group of African students who made themselves obnoxiously notorious."

The Somalis, Tass continued, adopted a resolution saying that reports of the demonstration by Western newsmen were "designed to divert the attention of the peoples from the brutalities committed by the imperialists."

First of Bowl Games Coming on Saturday

By F. T. MACFEELY
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Picture this possibility in the Gator Bowl football game Saturday: North Carolina leading by two points with two minutes left to play.

None of the 50,000 spectators better leave his seat and head for the parking lot. Nor is it a good time for a television viewer to go to the kitchen for another beer.

Terry Isaacson is perfectly capable of driving the Air Force Falcons the length of the field in two minutes and change the whole perspective.

He did it this season against Washington, Nebraska and Colorado.

Suppose the situation were the other way around and Air Force leads by two points with two minutes to play.

Same conclusion.

Junior Edge quarterbacked the Tar Heels to a late-minute 16-14 victory over Duke.

Coach Jim Hickey of North Carolina teaches a special stop-the-clock offense for just such a situation.

"We call ours the two-minute offense, for obvious reasons," Hickey said. "We simulate there being but two minutes left to play, a long way to go and only one time out remaining."

After nearly a week of practice at McCoy Air Force Base in Orlando, Coach Ben Martin brings his Air Force Falcons to Jacksonville today for the final polishing.

North Carolina has been working out at St. Augustine since arriving late Monday. Coach Hickey planned a final practice there today.

Navy Hurler Looks Toward Big Game

DALLAS (AP) — "It is the chance of a lifetime," said Roger Staubach.

The top college player of the year was speaking of the Cotton Bowl football game his Navy team will play with Texas next Wednesday.

Staubach quarterbacked the Navy team that had a 9-1 season, was picked as No. 2 in the nation and given the opportunity of playing national champion Texas.

The tall, handsome Heisman Trophy winner and All-America on everybody's team, flew into Dallas Wednesday night. He was with the advance guard as the Middles assembled at the site of the Cotton Bowl game to start the final stage of their training.

"We are looking forward to this game with great anticipation," said Staubach. "I am sure Texas players feel the same way—that it is an opportunity that comes only once in a lifetime."

Roger was a trifle grim as he expressed confidence in Navy's ability to beat Texas and lay an unofficial claim to the national championship.

He said he saw Texas against Oklahoma, watched Texas on television when it beat Texas A&M to wind up a perfect season and also studied the Longhorns in game films.

Coming in with Staubach were Tom Lynch, center and captain, and Pat Donnelly, the fullback.

Lynch said Navy had played every game well, even the one it lost 32-28 to Southern Methodist.

"If we were 0-10 and I had to watch the bowl games on television, I'd still say we played as well as we could, that we played every game well," said Lynch.

Ortiz Announces Ambitious Plans

NEW YORK (AP) — Lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz has announced ambitious plans for a title defense against Flash Elorde in Manila Feb. 1 and two other championship contests within a year.

Of course, the other two defenses, against Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., and Carlos Hernandez of Venezuela, depend on the Puerto Rican-born Ortiz retaining his crown.

As part of the deal for the Elorde fight, Ortiz and Elorde both agreed that the winner would meet Lane, the No. 1 contender, in March.

"This was announced Tuesday by Bill Daly, Ortiz' adviser and Dewey Fragetta, the New York boxing agent who represents Lope Sarreal, the Manila promoter who also is Elorde's manager and father-in-law."

If Ortiz wins, Daly said the champion would meet Lane in San Juan, Puerto Rico, for promoter Bob Leith. If Elorde wins, the fight with Lane undoubtedly will be held in Manila.

The Battle of Helena, which was fought on July 4, 1863, was the bloodiest of that year in Arkansas.

Putting the Spotlight on TV Sports

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Reflections after watching one too many movie and television sports documentaries:

Scene: The office of a documentary film producer. Gathered are script writers, producers, cameramen and jazz musicians with goatees.

The producer speaks: "Gentlemen, our next documentary is going to be about sports. We're going to call it, 'The Violent World of Bobo Haf-fenstegel.'"

"Who's he?"

"A football player, I think. Football is a game. The show has great possibilities for lines like: 'To lose is a fable. It stirs the animal.'"

"What does that mean?"

"I don't know, but we use that in all our sports documentaries. We also have a deep voice say: 'The struggle epitomizes life itself. It brings man face - to - face with his basic drives, against unseen resistance.' And then the boys here play that jazz-type music, all out of tune. It's very effective."

"How do they make those noises, anyway?"

"I don't know. Boys, how do you do it?"

"Well, I whistle through a trombone with the slide removed, and Joe and Sam jump up and down on three baritone saxophones. In the background we play a tape recording of a human sacrifice. You have to be careful to stay off the beat and out of tune. It takes practice."

"But what does all this have to do with football?"

"It gives the whole deal some class. We aren't aiming at a few creeps who just like sports. We want to link up sports with the struggle for existence, with man's eternal dream."

"I don't get it, myself, but at least we're working on a real sport for a change. I was getting tired of those half-hour segments of fly fishing in Patagonia, mixed in with barrel jumping on pogo sticks."

"Sports, schmorts, they're all the same."

"I'm not so sure about that. A guy who like to sit around the corner bar arguing about how many homers Ted Williams might have hit if he had played for the Yankees probably finds a fast half hour on bicycle riding in the Pyrennes a bit of a drag."

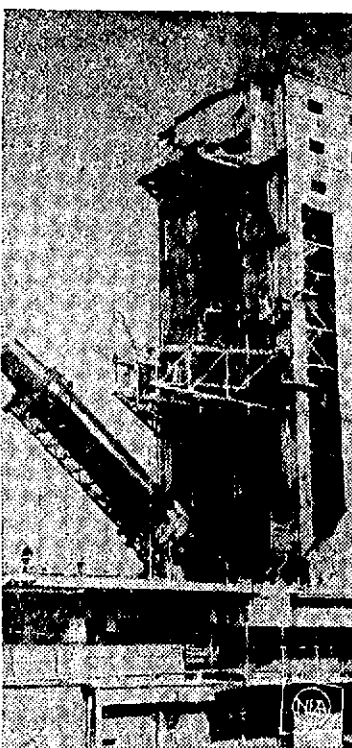

"Why I thought some of our best films were on the unusual sports. The one on yak racing in the Himalayas was very effective. And I still remember that wonderful one on clam digging in middle Mississippi."

"How about that one on 12-man volleyball for left-handed Peruvians. Very effective camera work on that one—all out of focus and fuzzy."

"Yes, and the sound track never matched the picture once. You know, the voice was talking about something and the people in the pictures were doing something else. And we never said who was talking. Great show."

"But do you think real sports fans are interested in that sort of stuff?"

"Who cares? Now let's get cracking on this football thing. We want a lot of fuzzy footage that means nothing, some deep thought-type platitudes and squeaky racket in the background. Just be careful—you

Jerry West Had Different Idea

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New York Knickerbockers might have thought they were on the way to their 10th National Basketball Association triumph, but Jerry West had a different idea.

Blanked in the first quarter in New York Wednesday night, the Los Angeles ace poured in 20 points in the final period and helped catapult the Lakers to a come-from-behind 134-126 victory.

The triumph, coupled with St. Louis' 113-107 loss to Cincinnati, boosted the Lakers' Western Division lead over the Hawks to two games.

West scored 47 points in all, far above his 29.1 average.

Illinois Has Trouble in Workouts

By JERRY LISKA

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Big Ten football champion Illinois seems in no danger of leaving its Rose Bowl game on the practice field.

In fact, the Illini may be hard-pressed trying to find their conference championship for before the New Year's Day tangle with Washington's Huskies.

"We had lousy blocking, lousy hitting, bad ball-handling and were awfully slow," snorted Coach Pete Elliott after a Christmas Day scrimmage which marked the first Illini "live" work since Thanksgiving Day.

The Illini celebrated Christmas with a two-hour mid-afternoon drill highlighted by a 30-minute offensive scrimmage against deep reserves equipped with expected Washington defenses.

"We're not close to game sharpness by any means," said Elliott, whose Illini started drills here a week behind the Huskies. The Illini, rated approximately

The Holiday Tourney Idea Has Caught on

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It didn't make a real big splash back in the early 30s when the first holiday college basketball tournament was organized, but the idea did catch on.

I caught on so well, in fact, that the grand-daddy of them all, the All-College in Oklahoma City, is now over-shadowed by many of the nearly half a hundred tourneys that have sprung up across the country during the holiday season.

The 27th All-College is one of eight major tourneys that open play today as the vast tournament schedule hits full stride. A handful was completed last week. At least 13 others open Friday and another Saturday. Still others don't begin play until next week.

Probably the biggest one of them all this season is the Los Angeles Classic, which includes three of the nation's top-ranked teams—Michigan, UCLA and New York University—in its classy field of eight.

The other big ones include the Far West Classic at Portland, Ore., where defending champ and ninth-ranked Oregon State is the team to beat; the Big Eight at Kansas City, with tough Oklahoma State possibly the class; and the Holiday Festival in New York's Madison Square Garden, featuring Minnesota, Utah, Dayton and Villanova in a field of eight.

The others opening today include the WCAC at San Francisco, the Queen City at Buffalo, N.Y., and the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

Wichita, a former champion and sporting a 6-2 record, is top-seeded in the old All-College with Wyoming, Oklahoma City and Texas A&M the top challengers.

Defending champion UCLA and Michigan, touted as the class of the Big Ten, are the co-favorites in the Los Angeles Classic. Each is 6-0; Michigan No. 3 in the country and UCLA No. 4.

NYU, sporting such talent as All-America Barry Kramer and equally dangerous Happy Hairston, is ranked 10th in the country and must be considered a definite threat. The Violets, however, have had their troubles in the last three games, their record slipping to 4-2.

The luck of the draw, however, has Michigan matched with NYU in a first-round game and the winner going against UCLA, providing the Bruins are successful in their opener against Yale, 4-1. Semifinals are scheduled Friday, the finals Saturday.

In addition to Michigan-NYU and UCLA-Yale, the other first round games have West Virginia, 5-3, vs. Illinois, 3-2 and Pittsburgh, 3-2, vs. Southern California, 3-3.

Oregon State has won all of the previous seven Far West Classics and fully intends to do it again. The Beavers go into it with a 7-1 record, the No. 9 ranking in the country and 7-foot Mel Counts. Their biggest threat appears to be Seattle, unbeaten in six.

Utah and Dayton each are unbeaten and each bucking for a national ranking, but tough Minnesota, 5-2, may be the team to beat in the Holiday Festival in New York. Utah is 8-0, Dayton 7-0. Villanova, 6-1, tops the five Eastern representatives.

The first round, all today, has St. John's, N.Y., vs. Utah; Villanova vs. Dayton; Cornell vs. Minnesota and St. Joseph's, Pa., vs. Providence.

The Queen City and Gator Bowl both are four-team affairs. The Queen City offers DePaul vs. Canisius and Xavier, Ohio vs. Miami, Ohio, while the Gator has Air Force against Florida State and Manhattan against Florida.

Hawks Beat Their Closest Pursuer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago Black Hawks' success formula this season has been to beat their closest pursuers and build up a lead in the National Hockey League.

The pursuers, in this case, have been the Montreal Canadiens, and the Black Hawks have done an efficient job in turning them back when the occasion warranted.

Chicago whipped Montreal 3-1 Wednesday night for the fifth time this season.

by a one-touchdown favorite over the Big Six champions, begins drills at Brookside Park adjacent to the Rose Bowl last Sunday. They have five single daily drills left.

Sixteen practice days are allowed for Rose Bowl preparations. Washington had two-a-day sessions at nearby Long Beach from Dec. 16 until last weekend. The Illini worked out five days at Champaign, Ill., before arriving here Saturday, but sub-zero weather kept them indoors.

time this season and opened up a six-point lead over the runner-up Canadiens. Montreal has defeated the Hawks only once and two games have ended in ties.

In other games Wednesday night, the Toronto Maple Leafs trimmed the Boston Bruins 5-1 and the Detroit Red Wings edged the New York Rangers 4-3.

Memorial Stadium, which today lies under a protective coating of chemical crystals and 50 tons of straw, will have its back massaged Saturday.

Still, you can't convince Boston's Mike Holovak or Buffalo's Lou Saban that modern science will prevent a frozen field for Saturday's Eastern Division title playoff in the American Football League.

The chemical crystals have been spread on the ground to promote melting. The straw provides heat to melt snow. And a tractor armed with high brushes will give the turf its massage.

Holovak and Saban, however, are making their plans on the assumption that the field will be frozen.

Holovak worked his Patriots out on a snowy practice field in Boston Wednesday and emphasized, "it will give us a preview of coming attractions. It might surprise us and turn out that the weather is less than frozen, but we're going on the assumption that we'll be playing on a frozen field."

Then he threw in some psychological warfare: "A frozen field could put us behind the eight-ball. No question about it, a frozen field will help the Bills a lot more than it will help us. In fact, it's made to order for them."

Will Not Take U.S. to Task

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Cambodia will not take the United States or her Allies to task in any conference called to assure Cambodian neutrality. Prince Norodom Sihanouk said in a communique today.

The chief of state issued the communique after a news dispatch from Paris reported the United States was not opposed in principle to such a conference, but did not want to attend if the meeting would be used to criticize the United States, Britain, Thailand or South Viet Nam.

Norwood Is Named to Star Squad

NEW YORK (AP) — Gordon Norwood, a quarterback who led Pine Bluff to two straight championships in Arkansas' Big Ten Conference, was named Sunday to the second team of Parade Magazine's All America high school football squad.

Norwood also was named Sunday to the All Southern squad picked by coaches and sports-writers and announced at Orlando, Fla. He was tabbed as Arkansas' outstanding player.

Norwood was the only Arkansas player on the 33-man Parade team. He was joined on the All Southern squad by teammate Jim Barnes, an end; David Cooper, a fullback from Texarkana; Jerry Michael, a back from Blytheville, and Jack Cates, a tackle from Fort Smith.

Each of the 12 Southern states placed five men on the All Southern team and each had five players listed for honorable mention.

Arkansas' honorable mentions were halfback Joe Smelser of North Little Rock, halfback Jim Whisenbunt of West Memphis, halfback Bebo Slates of Fort Smith, halfback Arkie Floyd of El Dorado and quarterback Scott Baguely of Blytheville.

Comedy May Save Temple Houston Show

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Will comedy save "Temple Houston?"

The Thursday night legal-Western has made a sudden switch from dead-serious to lighthearted, and star Jeffrey Hunter hopes that will save the frontier attorney from an early demise.

"NBC picked up the option for us to do 22 shows," said Hunter. "So there's hope that we will go the full season, maybe longer. The network has been very good about refusing to panic."

Early ratings found "Temple Houston" skidding along the bottom of the list. But, Hunter said, the ratings were taken on a 30-city basis and his show is seen only in 22 of them.

"I believe things will be getting better, especially with the new approach to the show," he said.

The "Temple Houston" pilot film was a humorous account of a Texas lawyer in the 1880s.

The powers decided this was the season for weightier subjects and jettisoned the light approach for heavy drama.

Hunter campaigned for a return to the original approach. After the first dozen shows, the change was ordered.

"I think it's a much better show this way, and it's certainly easier for me to do," Hunter said. "Doing an hour show with a lot of courtroom dialogue is tough enough. It's worse if you have to do heavy dramatics. About the ninth show I began to drag and I didn't see how I could get my energy up again. But now that I can play it lighter I'm getting my stride."

Hunter has more than an artistic interest in the success of "Temple Houston." He owns a share of the show — the first time that Warner Brothers has cut an actor in on a TV venture.

A novel about
BENEDICT ARNOLD
by
PHILIP VAIL
© 1963 by Philip Vail.

THE STORY: Benedict leads his troops within sight of Quebec and he bivouacs in a deserted farm building. Some of his troops, lighting a fire to keep warm, set fire to the house and the advantage of surprise is lost.

highly critical audience."

A small band consisting of three trumpeters, four fife players and four drummers struck up "Yankee Doodle," and the battalions started forward. And early-morning fog was clearing away; by the time the column approached the high walls of the great fortress, a watery sun was rising in the eastern sky. The band could undoubtedly be heard in the city. Benedict was pleased when he saw large crowds gathered on the ramparts.

They shook their fists at the troops and began to shout insults and curses.

The men marched in straight ranks; their discipline all the more remarkable because it was self-imposed.

The parade ended; the brigade wheeled into columns four abreast and halted, facing the city.

They waited for a quarter of an hour. Young boys on the ramparts began to throw rocks at the Yankees.

"We've observed the amenities. It's time to act," Benedict turned in his saddle. "Mr. Ogden!"

Ogden came forward.

"Tie a white cloth of truce to your sword and go to the gate. Demand to see Governor Hector Cramahne and present my terms to him."

"What are the terms, sir?"

"The unconditional surrender of his garrison and the city of Quebec!"

Ogden started forward, accompanied by an honor guard of two men from each of the battalions. There was a stir on the ramparts, and a few moments later one of the cannon roared. The shot went wild, the ball landing in the St. Lawrence River.

Benedict was apoplectic.

"Cramahne has broken the fundamental rule of civilized warfare. An ignorant civilian or a recruit who doesn't know his left foot from his right might fire on a flag of truce. But a governor holds the rank of a brigadier in the British army. He deliberately affronted me!"

Christopher Greene's eyes were bleak. "The walls didn't tumble down," he said. "so that leaves us with the problem of what to do next."

"We're setting up a blockade," Benedict told them. "We will intercept anyone who tries to enter or leave the city by land, and as soon as we can capture a ship, we'll blow their sloops out of the water and prevent any relief by sea. I don't like making war on civilians, but Cramahne has given me no choice. We must starve Quebec into submission."
